Freshii Will Provide Healthy Meal Options to Energize Puget Sound

BELLEVUE, Wash (Feb. 26, 2016) — This spring, Freshii, a leader in health-casual restaurants, will open its doors at The Bellevue Collection in Bellevue Square, offering fresh and nutritious meal choices that energize people on the go. Located on the second level, the new restaurant brings to the community a diverse and completely customizable menu of breakfast, soups, salads, wraps, bowls, burritos, frozen yogurt, juices and smoothies. Freshii caters to every dietary and taste preference and is on a global mission to help individuals live longer and healthier lives by making fresh food convenient and affordable to all.

“Freshii caters to the millennial generation and all people who pay attention to the fuel they put into their bodies. We know the community will welcome our brand and menu with open arms,” shares Freshii Bellevue Owner Melissa Barnes. Many people in the Puget Sound region embraced vegan-friendly eateries before the dietary preference went mainstream. The region is accustomed to catering to a health-conscious community, and Freshii’s mission is on target with the growing focus on health and wellness.

“Bringing new and dynamically diverse food choices to our customers is one of the things that helps The Bellevue Collection stand apart as a major destination in our community,” says Jennifer Leavitt, vice president/marketing, The Bellevue Collection. “We seek out innovative restaurants like Freshii who bring to The Collection delicious, healthy options that fit the lifestyle of our shoppers. Freshii will be a welcome addition that we know our community will embrace.”
