Lunar New Year day this year is Tuesday, February 1st.

The Chinese and Vietnamese Zodiacs are represented by 12 animals. According to legend, the Jade Emperor invited all animals to enter a long race and the first 12 to finish would each rule a year every 12 years. The Tiger was the 3rd animal to finish the race, which is why it appears as the third animal in the zodiac.

Each zodiac animal brings its own personality and characteristics to the year. Can you imagine what a tiger year might look like?

Tiger years: 1938, 1950, 1962, 1974, 1986, 1998, 2010, 2022, 2034

ABOUT THIS YEAR'S DESIGN

Our 2022 Year of the Tiger design was created by Ciara Sana, a Chamoru artist currently based in Bellingham, Washington.

"I grew up in Guam, where I was surrounded by a mix of my Indigenous Chamoru culture and people from all over the Pacific islands, Asia, and the US mainland. My art is rooted and influenced by my culture and inspired by all the different styles and flavors found on the beautiful island. The goal of my work is to empower and uplift others, celebrate differences, and encourage love. Art is my passion, and I want to share it with the world. I hope my art brings you and the ones you love joy. You can find more of my art and about me on Instagram @artbyciara."
